75 YEARS

Poppy [noun]

Any plant of the genus Papaver, having showy, usually red flowers

Many people choose to wear a poppy in November for Remembrance Day to show respect for the people who died fighting in the First World War and the conflicts that followed.

But there are other coloured poppies too - purple, black and white - that have different meanings. How do you wear yours?

We'll Meet Again

Don't know where, don't know when
But I know We'll Meet Again
Some sunny day
Keep smiling through
Just like you always do
'Till the blue skies drive the dark clouds far away

So will you please say hello, To the folks that I know
Tell them I won't be long, They'll be happy to know
That as you saw me go, I was singing this song

We'll Meet Again

Don't know where, don't know when
But I know we'll meet again
Some sunny day
We'll Meet Again
Don't know where, don't know when
But I know we'll meet again
Some sunny day
Keep smiling through
Just like you always do
'Till the blue skies drive the dark clouds far away

So will you please say hello, To the folks that I know
Tell them I won't be long, They'll be happy to know
That as you saw me go, I was singing this song

We'll Meet Again

Don't know where, don't know when
But I know We'll Meet Again
Some sunny day
